

Program

The 5th International Conference on Applied Ethics (November 5-7, 2010)

Friday 5th
12:00 - 12:50	Registration
12:50 - 13:00	Opening Address: Takahiko Nitta (W409)
Keynote speech (W409)
13:00-14:30	Virginia Held "Morality, Care, and International Law"
14:30-14:45	Break
14:45-16:15	Session 1-a (W409): Metaethics	Session 1-b (W104) : Environmental Ethics I	Session 1-c (W308) : Bio & Medical Ethics I	Session 1-d (W201): International Ethics
	Makoto Suzuki "Well-being, Desire, and the Problem of 'Miswanting' "	Tzu-Ying Su "A Justification of Holistic Unity of Man and Nature from Song Confucians and Its Implications for Environmental Ethics"	Alex Grossini "Gene Doping and Cheating: the Inhibition of Myostatin and the Sport Competition"	Jake Blair "Honor in the Military and the Possible Implication for the Traditional Separation of Jus Ad Bellum and Jus In Bello"
	Laura Specker "Moral Realism and Moral Disagreement: An Alternative Account"	Yi-Hua Su "The Limitation of Beauty: A Reflection on the Connection of Human Being and Nature"	Carina Fourie "What Does Social Justice Have to Say about Health Care Rationing? The 'Dimensions of Well-being' Approach Applied to Explicit Age-rationing"	James Garrison "Reparation and Mixed Background"
	Thomas Adajian "Moral Disagreement, Moral Realism, and Indeterminacy"	Nobutsugu Kanzaki "Moral Psychology in Environmental Ethics"	Takeshi Sato "Human Enhancement and Human Nature"	Tomasz Zuradzki "How the Ethic of War can Become a Part of the General Morality?"
16:15-16:30	Break
Plenary session 1 (W409)
16:30-18:00	Lary May "Varieties of Reparations and Restitution in Jus Post Bellum"
18:15-20:15	Reception (W410)

Saturday 6th
10:00-12:00	Session 2-a (W409) : Environmental Ethics II (Environment & Responsibility)	Session 2-b (W309): Science, Technology and Ethics	Session 2-c (W308): Bio & Medical Ethics II	Session 2-d (W202): Global Ethics	Session 2-e (W201): Sex, Gender and Sexuality-1
	Fabian Schppert "Administering Scarce Natural Resources: Time to De-Territorialize and Re- Territorialize Sovereignty?"	John Weckert "Models of Science and Perceptions of Scientific Trustworthiness"	Claudio Corradetti "DePGx Project: Assessing Ethical Implications of Pharmacogenomics through Deliberative Consultation"
	Leslie Mabon "Linking Pragmatists and Rally Drivers: on the Reciprocal Relationship between Environmental Ethics Thinking and Practice"	Rainhard Zvi Benghez "Ethics of Compassion or How to Make Machines Feel and Act More Anthropomorphic"	Yen-bin Chiou "Ethics and the Biopolitical Subject of Abandonment: Revisiting the Problems of Informed Consent"	Madeleine Heyenhjelm "Risks and Contractualism: What is a Fair Distribution of Risk?"
	Anne Schwenkenbecher "Collective Moral Obligations & Climate Change"	Nobuo Kazashi "'Inhuman Weapons' and the Precautionary Approach: the Case of DU (Depleted Uranium) Weapons"	Carwyn Rhys Hooper "Responsible Research?"	Tsung-yi Michelle Huang "Like a Family but Not Quite: Emotional Labor and Cinematic Ethics of Intimacy"	Mari Nakagawa "Fathers' Family Involvement and Wives' Employment in Japan"
	Ryoji Fujimoto "Making sense of Collective Moral Responsibility"	Sadjad Soltanzadeh "Distribution of Responsibilities in Technologically Mediated Acts (TMA's)"	Sakura Yahata "A Problem of Modern Medical Ethics: from Analysis of Defensive Medicine in Japan"	Alice Pinheiro Walla "Provisional Acquisition as "True Acquisition": Kant's Argument against Colonialism"	Taeko Shibahara "'The Private League of Nations": The Pan-Pacific Women's Conference and Japanese Feminists in 1928"
12:00-13:00	Lunch

Plenary Session 2 (W409)
13:00-14:30	Søren Holm "Professional Ethics - Who should Decide its Content"		14:10	International Symposium "Reproductive Rights and The Sustainability of Women's Health in Historical and Contemporary Perspectives" (Hokkaido Univ. Conference Hall)
			14:10-14:30		Opening Speech: Takahiko Nitta
14:30-14:45	Break
14:45-16:15	Workshop: Neuroethics (W409)	Session 3-a (W309): Media and Social Ethics	Session 3-b (W308): "Global Ethics after the Responsibility to Protect(R2P): Challenges and Dilemmas" *This session is co-sponsored by Nazan Univeristy, The Institute for Social Ethics
			Tetsuya Kono "Religion, Morality, and Brain"	Radoslaw Komuda, Rafal Rzepka "Social Factors in Kohlberg's Theory of Development – the Utility of (Web) Crowd Wisdom for Machine Ethics Research"	Josuke Ikeda "From Asylum to Intervention: the Idea of Protection in Global Ethics"	14:30-15:30	Miho Ogino "From Abortion to Reproductive Technologies: the Development of Women's Health Movement in Japan"
	Bernard Baertschi "Neuroimaging in the Courts"	Chris Mathews "Manga, Child Pornography, and the Problem of Non-Existent Minors"
			Tsung-huei Huang "Laughter, Violence, and Ethics: The Benjamin-Adorno Debate on Early Disney Films as a Point of Departure"	Masatsugu Chijiwa "Who is a "right authority" and on what grounds?: The United Nations Security Council versus a concert of liberal"	15:45-16:45
16:15-16:30	Break
Plenary Session 3 (W409)				16:45-17:00	Break
16:30-18:00	Andrew Light "Finding a Future for Climate Ethics"		17:00-17:50	Question and Answer Session
18:30-20:30	Conference Dinner (Sapporo Aspen Hotel)

Sunday 7th
	Session 4-a (W409): Issues from Non- Western Perspectives	Session 4-b (W309): Justice and Morality	Session 4-c (W308): Bio &Medical Ethics III	Session 4-d (W205): Sex, Gender and Sexuality-2
10:00-12:00	Maria-Kayko Yasuoka "Revision of Organ Transplantation Law in Japan: Brain Death, Presumed Consent, and Children's Organ Donation"	Rhishikesh Datar "Enriching and Engaging Employees through Business Ethics Training"
	Ahad Framarz Qaramaleki "Iranian Companies Experience in Business Ethics"	Lydia de Tienda Palop "Nussbaum's Capabilities List: How to Evaluate Justice"	Chan-Ip Chan "An Ethically Superior Organ Procurement Policy"
	Su-chen Lee "An Oriental Perspective on the Ethical Issue of Physician-Assisted Suicide"	Wanling Chou "The Relationship between Neuro-Intervention of Memory and Moral Responsibility"	Yohei Akaida "Organ Procurement Systems and Supererogation"	Takayo Sasaki "Parental Involvement and Children's Perception of Competence: From Gender Perspectives"
	Kiarash Aramesh "The Moral Status of Early Human Embryo: An Islamic Perspective"	Regina Rini "Moral Psychology and Moral Philosophy: The Case for Principled Moderation"	Sune Holm "Moral Standing, Artificial Organisms and Synthetic Biology"	Kiyomi Oshima "Effect of Parental Involvement and Marital Relationships on Young Adult Daughters' Well-being"
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-14:30	Special Lecture (W409) Norman Daniels "Intergenerational Justice and Health in an Aging Society"
14:30-14:45	Break
14:45-15:30	Q&A Discussion
15:30-15:40	Closing Address: Nobuo Kurata			